

SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE

Established in 2002, The San Francisco Women's Political Committee (SFWPC) is the largest women's organization in San Francisco. SFWPC recruits and supports feminist candidates for office, helps women get appointed to commissions, develops a slate card for each election cycle, hosts seminars and events, and distributes a quarterly newsletter.

SFWPC works to engage women in all dimensions of the political process. We educate our members about the issues facing women, engage them in the political process and give them a voice to influence policy. SFWPC is a multi-partisan organization, working with promising potential candidates, male and female, from all political parties. SFWPC is run by a volunteer Board of Directors that meets every month.
