

SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE

Established in 2002, the San Francisco Women's Political Committee (SFWPC) is the largest women's organization in San Francisco with hundreds of active members of all ages and political parties, both female and male.

SFWPC works to engage women in all dimensions of the political process. We are committed to elevating women into positions of leadership including elected office, boards, commissions and management positions. We are politically active and engaged through candidate and initiative endorsements and the only women's slate card program in San Francisco. We actively advocate for policy improvements that support our bottom-line issues: empowering women, girls and community. We lead the sustainability of the women's movement in San Francisco by convening the Annual San Francisco Women's Policy Summit, hosting networking events and striving to cultivate partnerships with other women's organizations.
